

Introducing Careers in Nursing, Midwifery and Paramedicine: Talgai College Students visit to USC from the Torres Strait Islands

Presenters

Lynne Stuart (S/Lecturer - Nursing), Matt Mason (Lecturer - Nursing) and Julie-Anne Foster
(Lecturer – Paramedic Sciences)

School of Nursing, Midwifery and Paramedicine

University of the Sunshine Coast (USC) – Tuesday 16th August 2016

Key Points of Presentation:

Pathway to University Studies – Nursing, Midwifery and Paramedicine

Pathway to study at USC after I complete my High School studies

Overview - Torres Strait Islander People in Healthcare

Case Study – Lynne Stuart – My career as a Nurse

Case Study – Matt Mason – My Career as a Nurse

Case Study – Julie-Ann Foster – My career as a Paramedic

Overview - alternative university career pathways

Experiential exercise – The Anatomical Model Game

Experiential exercise – The Aspirational Glove

Conclude - Group Photo

Group Photo – TALGAI Visit - USC August 2016

